

EUROPEAN HERITAGE TRIBUNE

A NEWSLETTER ON EUROPE'S CULTURAL HERITAGE

EUROPEAN HERITAGE TRIBUNE
STAY INFORMED AND GET INSPIRED

WHAT?
The European Heritage Tribune (EHT) is a new newsletter on Europe's cultural heritage. It provides an overview of the latest news and best practices from all over Europe. The EHT also hosts a platform featuring a calendar of upcoming events, calls, and announcements.

WHY?
Language is a major barrier for structural cross-border exchange of knowledge. The EHT wants to lower this barrier and share local news and knowledge on cultural heritage, together with the news of European institutions and organizations on a broad, pan-European level.

HOW?
The EHT collects news on policy and best practices from sources all over Europe. It summarizes the news and bundles it into newsletters. Currently, these summaries are in English. In a later phase, they can be made available in other European languages.

EUROPEAN YEAR OF CULTURAL HERITAGE 2018
The EHT is a legacy of the European Year of Cultural Heritage. It started in 2018 as a pilot project. The newsletter is currently financially sustained by a growing community of over fifteen partners, funders and sponsors, both private and public. This community not only provides the EHT with sustainable funding, it also protects the independence of news gathering.

HOW CAN YOU SUPPORT THE EHT?

- Subscribe to the EHT as a person
- Endorse the EHT as an organization
- Join the initiative as a partner
- Bring us into contact with your information officer, so we can keep our readers informed on what's going on in your organization or country.

The EHT is open to new partners.
